OBJECT: CIRCULAR CORONAVIRUS

Dear Customer,

The worldwide spread and the proliferation of infections related to "CORONAVIRUS" in our country, has affected and will probably affect many companies in its operation.

We are doing our best, also adopting policies of accuracy for us and our employees.

At the moment we do not foresee any slowdown in production that would alarm anyone. If there are any unforeseen events, you will be informed immediately.

However, we consider the possibility of delays in receiving raw materials in the coming months to be high, for this reason we would like to ask you to plan your needs in the best possible way and sending us new commitments.

A big support from your part could be to redefine the lead time to our product in 6/7 weeks from order. This could be a good precautions for safeguard future changesets due to our suppliers or at the situation of work.

Certain of your support, we remain at your complete disposal.

Best regards.
